

RED RATTLER RETREAT

The Red Rattler Retreat at “Lagoona” is situated on the Ovens River surrounded by Wine and High Country, Victoria, Australia. This is a place for mountain streams, vineyards and inspired stories of high drama and folklore.

Unique and peaceful are the words to describe the setting. Red Rattler Retreat offers delightful accommodation for your comfort in your own renovated Railway carriage, featuring a Queen size bed and lounge in one compartment and two single beds in another. An additional compartment contains a fully equipped bathroom with its own rural outlook. Continental breakfast provisions are provided along with undercover BBQ facilities readily available. Located near Boorhaman, Red Rattler Retreat is the perfect base to explore Rutherglen and Alpine wineries and historic towns.
